

Nimbus

I was there when the walls fell
And for a moment I could not pull myself free
I dreamed I was flying
My way home, back to the sea

I was there at Tanagra
And for a moment I could not find my way out
So I walked through the desert
Escape there was on the northern route

I was there on the timeline
And for a moment they looked my way and said hey
For a instant I wondered
Arms so wide, but hands in the way

I was there on the mountain
And for a moment just me myself and I
I stood there in silence
Atmosphere, through all seeing eyes

9 December 2020

Roger N. Renfro