

Honor Them

What's your truth
Is it hanging round your neck
Does it get lost sometimes
Down on the lower deck

The river you've been swimming in
Will take you where you need to go
The eddies have been weakening
By faces in the gentle flow
You've got to honor them

What's your truth
Can you hear the firing pin
You need a warm witness
To see the hurt within

The river you've been walking in
Will take you where you need to go
The eddies have been neutralized
By faces in the gentle flow
You've got to honor them

What's your truth
It's staring you in the face
Go out and live your life
Live it at your own pace

The river you've been rescued from
Took you where you had to go
The eddies were all set aside
By faces in the gentle flow
You've got to honor them
