

Take Me Home

Desert morning in Pima county
Saguaro cactus standing high
Every day is like starting over
Underneath the Tucson sky

A thousand miles from old Rose City
Silent as a heavy sigh
See the rush of a mad arroyo
Old Pueblo caught my eye

You know that old roads lead home
Take you back where
Everybody has a smile
Yes and old roads lead home
Drive you back there
By the inch and every mile
Just take me home

Purple sage in Tooele Valley
Rolling round it's not at rest
Early morning feel the rain it's coming
Moving in from west southwest

Sittin' low in Middle Canyon
One more day among the best
Late at night hear the highway humming
Everybody's headed west

You know that old roads lead home
Take you back where
Everybody has a smile
Yes and old roads lead home
Drive you back there
Every turn and every mile
Just take me home

Live, where your story takes you
Love, where your heart goes
Smile, when you're feeling lucky
Dream, of going home

21 March 2021

Roger N. Renfro